

I am totally against changing the age 60 mandatory retirement age. While older pilots have much experience, there is a definite degradation in their abilities approaching age 60. Extending the retirement age can only result in a reduction in the level of safety. Additionally, at a time when thousands of pilots are currently furloughed, there is no need to increase the number of pilots available by changing the age 60 rule!